Destination Highlight:

Algarve and Portugal

Rugged coastlines, hidden beaches and seafood worth flying for.

Along Portugal's southern edge, the Algarve is where wild nature meets laid-back living. One day you're hiking cliff trails between secret coves. The next, you're sailing into sea caves or catching waves on wide, wind-swept beaches.

The food's a highlight too. Cataplana, a rich seafood stew, is a local classic, and no trip is complete without a warm pastel de nata (or three). Between meals, explore old towns like Lagos, browse handmade ceramics or play a round of golf with the Atlantic as your backdrop.

It's the kind of place that makes it easy to slow down – and hard to leave.

Don't miss:

- Surf spots on the west coast
- Boat trip to Benagil Cave
- Seven Hanging Valleys hike
- Golf with sea views
- Fresh seafood and local pastries

How to get there

We fly direct to Faro from Oslo, Copenhagen and Stockholm Arlanda all year round.
